

Q.

Flexibility is a guiding principle of federalism in India that is the reason the imperatives of security, state-building, and economic development are always allowed to trump federal pieties. In light of this, examine the factors which are responsible for sustaining federalism in India. (150 words) 10 marks 7min

Answer will be published shortly

ASPIRE IAS