

Q.

"In present times of acute economic distress in the country; the government needs to find a perfect balance between workers' rights and its need to attract investment and creating jobs in the economy". Analyze the statement in the context of the recent labour reform bills introduced in the Parliament. (150 words) 10marks 7min

Answer will be published shortly

ASPIRE IAS