

Q.

Results of the elections in India have always been accepted by political parties without questioning the legitimacy of the results. In light of this, discuss the role of Election Commission of India in conducting elections in India and what are the factors that enable it to perform that role. (250 words) 15 marks 11 min

Answer will be published shortly

ASPIRE IAS