

Q.

Slums are not 'problems' that have to be 'solved' – but are indeed a result of lopsided and vested urban policies covering land ownership, infrastructure provision and maintenance, and other socio-economic issues. Analyse. (250 words) 15 marks 11 min

Answer will be published shortly

ASPIRE IAS