

Q.

What India needs is low-input, high-output agriculture. This cannot be achieved without science and technology. In light of this, explore the areas in which India needs to focus on to exploit the technology to make its agriculture productive. (250 words) 15 marks 11 min

Answer will be published shortly

ASPIRE IAS